Welcome to the Furry 5K

The Furry 5K is Seattle Animal Shelter's premier, community event that annually hosts 2,000 two-legged participants and 1,000 four-legged participants

Seattle Animal Shelter

Caring for Seattle's abandoned, abused and orphaned animals since 1972.

Save over 3,500 animals from homelessness, neglect, & abuse each year.

Placed 1,482 homeless animals into loving homes.

Reunited 632 lost pets with their families.

Investigated over 1,000 cases of animal cruelty, neglect or abuse.

Hosts 62,000 shelter visits per year.

Has a dedicated team of 900 community volunteers.

Supported by over 12,000 fans on Facebook.

Race Participants

Average age of the two-legged participants is 36.

50% of participants are age 28-44.

60% are women.

Participants reside in the greater Seattle area.

Your Sponsorship Supports

Paying for veterinary care for shelter animals.

Rehabilitating animals who were victims of cruelty and neglect.

Low-cost spay/neuter surgeries preventing thousands of pets from becoming homeless in the future.

Educating the public about importance of spaying and neutering their pet, reporting suspected animal cruelty and neglect, and lost/found pet resources.
